The workshop will discuss the aims and show practical methods of these serious fun and games. A selection of photographs will show subvertising examples.
5.00pm – 6.30pm	Resisting destitution : Asylum, migration, paradox – What's the difference between undocumented migration and seeking asylum? How much support does an asylum-seeker get? At what point does a person become ineligible for employment, housing and financial aid in the UK – and how did borders ever get so selective? Discussion-based forum will explore the meaning of the current UK system for migrants and asylum-seekers in Bristol, and the different ways forced destitution is already being politicised. Direct action; campaigning; hospitality networks; publishing other peoples' testimony – we will think through the hidden implications of trying to 'resist' in obvious ways, and try and unpick some of the clashing ideas around the 'freedom of movement'. This will be a dialogical session, aiming to explore our own assumptions as well as those of the 'system.' Well-informed, baffled or curious, come with an open mind and a willingness to grapple with a bit of complexity.	3.30pm Animal Rights demo against Huntingdon Life Sciences Customer. Contact barc@hotmail.co.uk for further information. Expect to arrive back in Bristol by 7pm.
